

Hawaiian MGambo Seed Earrings

$15.00

Item URL: http://woodgalleryonline.com/brendaverlini435_1.php

These earrings are made from the Hawaiian Mgambo Seed. The Mgambo seed is native to Africa but grow in small quantities in the Kona area in Hawaii. These seeds are very hard and durable. Kept away from water and abuse these seeds can last many years. Beautifully set in sterling silver and a variety of colored beads these earrings will sure to be an eyecatcher and an instant conversation in the making. Please call for specific colors 1-800-359-1419 or allow us to surprise you with a color. Measures 1 1/4" tall by 1/4" wide

Store prices, rebate offers, and special pricing subject to change.