

Large Hand Laminated Rocking Horse from New Zealand

$3995.00

Item URL: http://woodgalleryonline.com/furniture103_1.php

Artist: Tim and Kim Reep This beautiful rocking horses named Clunie is from New Zealand and will steal your heart. Can you imagine finding one under your Christmas tree! These horses have won awards for design and export achievement and have been universally accepted as the Best Rocking Horse Worldwide since 1977. They are individually carved from the best laminated woods thus insuring that no two horses are alike. Each has his own registration certificate as any other thoroughbred or pedigree pony and is an investment to give pleasure to generations of children. Tack consists of a bridle, complete with noseband and bit, breastplate and saddle with girth and stirrups. It is all individually detachable in a realistic manner and made of real leather. The mane and tail are real horse hair. The horse holds adult weight. 45 inches H by 7 foot L
Shipping costs apply to this item

Store prices, rebate offers, and special pricing subject to change.